Optical fiber Wikipedia

An optical fiber is a flexible transparent fiber made by drawing glass or plastic to a diameter slightly thicker than that of a human hair. Optical fibers are used most often as a means to transmit light between the two ends of the fiber and find wide usage in fiber optic communications where they permit transmission over longer distances and at higher bandwidths data rates than electrical.

Income tax in the United States Wikipedia

Income taxes in the United States are imposed by the federal government, most states, and many local governments. The income taxes are determined by applying a tax rate, which may increase as income increases, to taxable income, which is the total income less allowable deductions. Income is broadly defined. Individuals and corporations are directly taxable, and estates and trusts may be taxable on
